Cohort Limited Merges with BM Corporate Services

Hamilton, Bermuda – 1st February 2023 – Cohort Limited, which is a licensed corporate service provider, today announced the merger with BM Corporate Services Ltd effective 3rd January 2023. The combined entity will trade and operate as Cohort Limited.

Tracy Packwood, Director, Cohort Limited stated, “We are delighted to merge Cohort Limited and BM Corporate Services Ltd. We remain a manager-owned entity, involved directly with the management of our clients. We pride ourselves on establishing and maintaining strong, long-standing relationships with our clients. This will continue.

“Cohort has ten employees, who have all been retained in the new business. We share the same values. We will provide robust operating practices and remain committed to the tradition we have for excellent service, corporate expertise, and a professional, caring environment for our clients and employees.”

Marco Montarsolo, Director, Cohort Limited added, “There is a synergy of services, each entity bringing highly specialized knowledge and experience to the new organization. We will continue to offer economic substance solutions, independent directorships and sponsor applications for new listings on the Bermuda Stock Exchange together with access to outstanding and competitive in-house legal solutions through our affiliation with Solo Legal.”
